

MISS YOU

No one ever says it
Only after we are gone
Why did I never say it
When you were still around
No one made it easy
No one said it's that hard
Losing tears like chances
Crumbling like a house of cards

I wish I would have told you
Life is going to be hard
When you're gone
I wish I would have told you
The day you'd leave
I'd come along
A bottle of your favorite
I don't know what to do
Just crying out your last whiskey
'Cause I miss you

Everybody told me
It's gonna get easier soon
Still wait for this to happen
Maybe you'd peek anytime into my room
The filter of life has changed
Now I see different colors
For fuck sake, it's too late
Would print this on my sweater

Oh, oh, ooh

I wish I would have told you
Life is going to be hard
When you're gone
I wish I would have told you
The day you'd leave
I'd come along
A bottle of your favorite
I don't know what to do
Just crying out your last whiskey
'Cause I miss you

Yeah eh, oh

People try to save me
But they couldn't save the sinking ship either
(Aah)
People talk 'bout heaven
But fairy tales are only for believers

Oh, I miss you
Miss you

I wish I would have told you
Life is going to be hard
(Uh, yeah, yeah)
When you're gone
I wish I would have told you
The day you'd leave
I'd come along
(Hey, ah, ah)
(I don't know what to dooo)
(Whiskey)
'Cause I miss you
