

ALL YOU SEE IN ME

Good things come to those who wait
I'd challenge time to prove it's a myth
You swore out loud in a moonlit room
You'd hunt down the witch who did this

Now I run a marathon
'Cause you aim straight for my head

My black boots once by your door
But today there are none anymore

'Cause all you see in me, in me
Is all you have in you
All you see in me, in me
Is all you have in you
Oh, oh, oh, oh
All you see in me is you

Cowards lie to save themselves
Words as strong as a promised heart
Your ego plays it all down
Your avatar plays the harp

Can you lay with dogs and not Come up with these nasty fleas

"Family" is a good word
But they don't chain your soul and let it freeze

All you see in me, in me
Is all you have in you
All you see in me, in me
Is all you have in you
(All you have in you)
Oh, oh
(All you have in you)
Oh, oh
(All you have in you)
Oh, oh
(All you have in you)
All you see in me is you

You know, the image you've created of me
Is nothing but your own entity
Which is your real enemy

At least, I write lots of songs 'bout you
And put them on the internet for you
But you can't do what I can do, do you

(Do you)
Do you
(Do you)
Do you
(Do you)

When my power marched in fast
You hoped for the saving cannon ball

People are not set in stone
Just sometimes they come down like a waterfall

All you see in me, in me
Is all you have in you
All you see in me, in me
Is all you have in you

I paid for your champagne
You got drunk on greed

All you see in me

Sipping forlornly in your
Boarded up silent street

'Cause all you see in me
No good, no good
