

ALONE

First they cancelled all my shows
Then again I got misunderstood
Then they kicked me out of this hole
This loud neighborhood

The wall came down in 1989
No money, no hope to fly to New York
I heard 'em cry when I left so young
Still being a kid, dreaming of the world

I feel alone
In this big, big world
I feel alone
In this big, big world
I feel the wall's rising up again
It brings me back to ol' days
They say I was too young
To have anything to say
I feel alone
In this world

Just 'cause you believe in something
Doesn't mean it is true
Rulers feed on the goodness of folks
I refuse to rule

I grew up on the street inno time
N' learned to live with whatever was left
No grandfather smiled and said to me
"No matter what, my dear, never look back!"

I feel alone
In this big, big world
I feel alone
In this big, big world
I feel the wall's rising up again
It brings me back to ol' days
They say I was too young
To have anything to say
I feel alone
In this world

Some say it's a hoax
Some say it's overrated
Some know how to mute
Half-life
Full of scars inside

Just 'cause I always smile
Doesn't mean I never had bad luck
Just 'cause I write some happy songs
Doesn't mean I shouldn't speak up
'Cause time won't give back
What I once had
That's why I feel so trapped

I feel alone
In this world
I feel alone
In this world

(I feel alone)
I feel alone
In this big, big world
(I feel alone)
I feel alone
In this big, big world
I feel the wall's rising up again
It brings me back to ol' days
They say I was too young
To have anything to say
I feel alone
In this world